

HOW TO

(designed to be easy and quick)

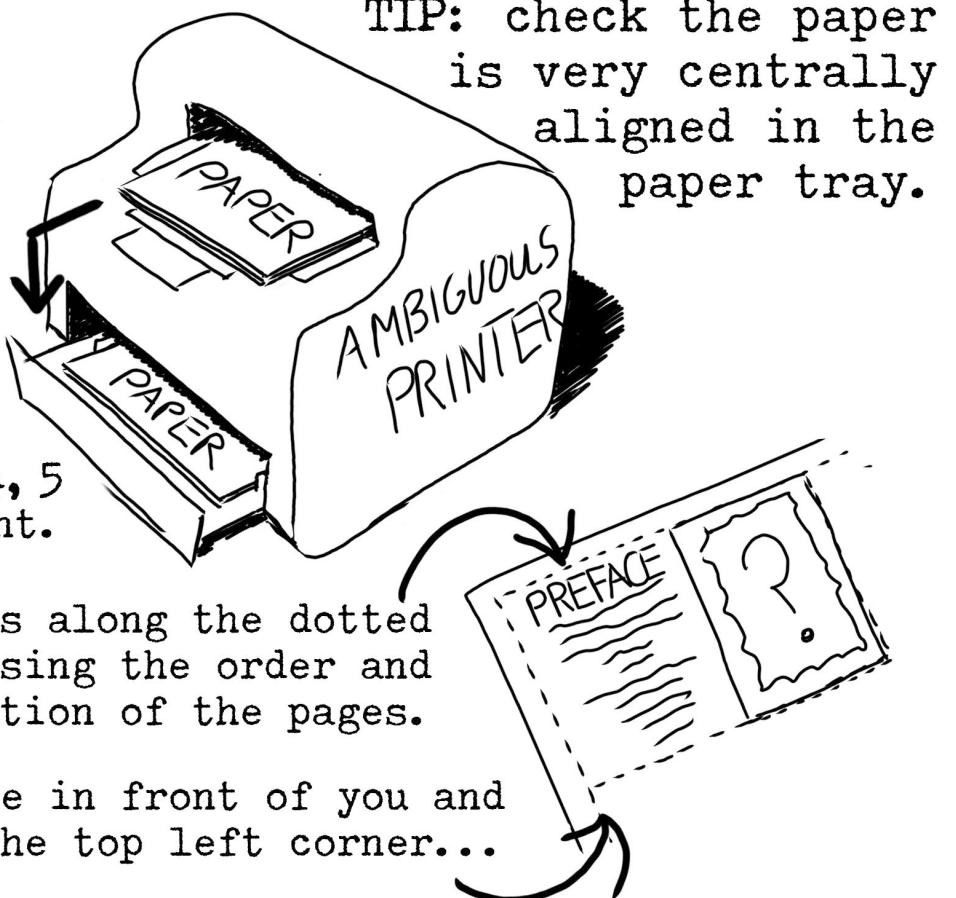

1) Print pages 2, 3 of this document.

2) Once all sheets have printed, take the pile and move it into the paper tray, without rotating or flipping it.

3) Print pages 4, 5 of this document.

4) Trim the edges along the dotted line, without losing the order and orientation of the pages.

5)a) With the pile in front of you and the PREFACE in the top left corner...

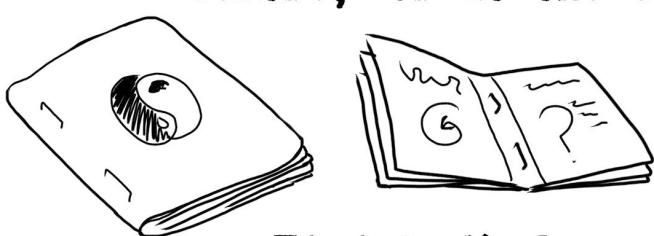

5)b) Cut the trimmed pages into 4 quarters following the dotted lines and edges of the pages...

5)c) As you cut them out, add each page on top of the pile. The order is:

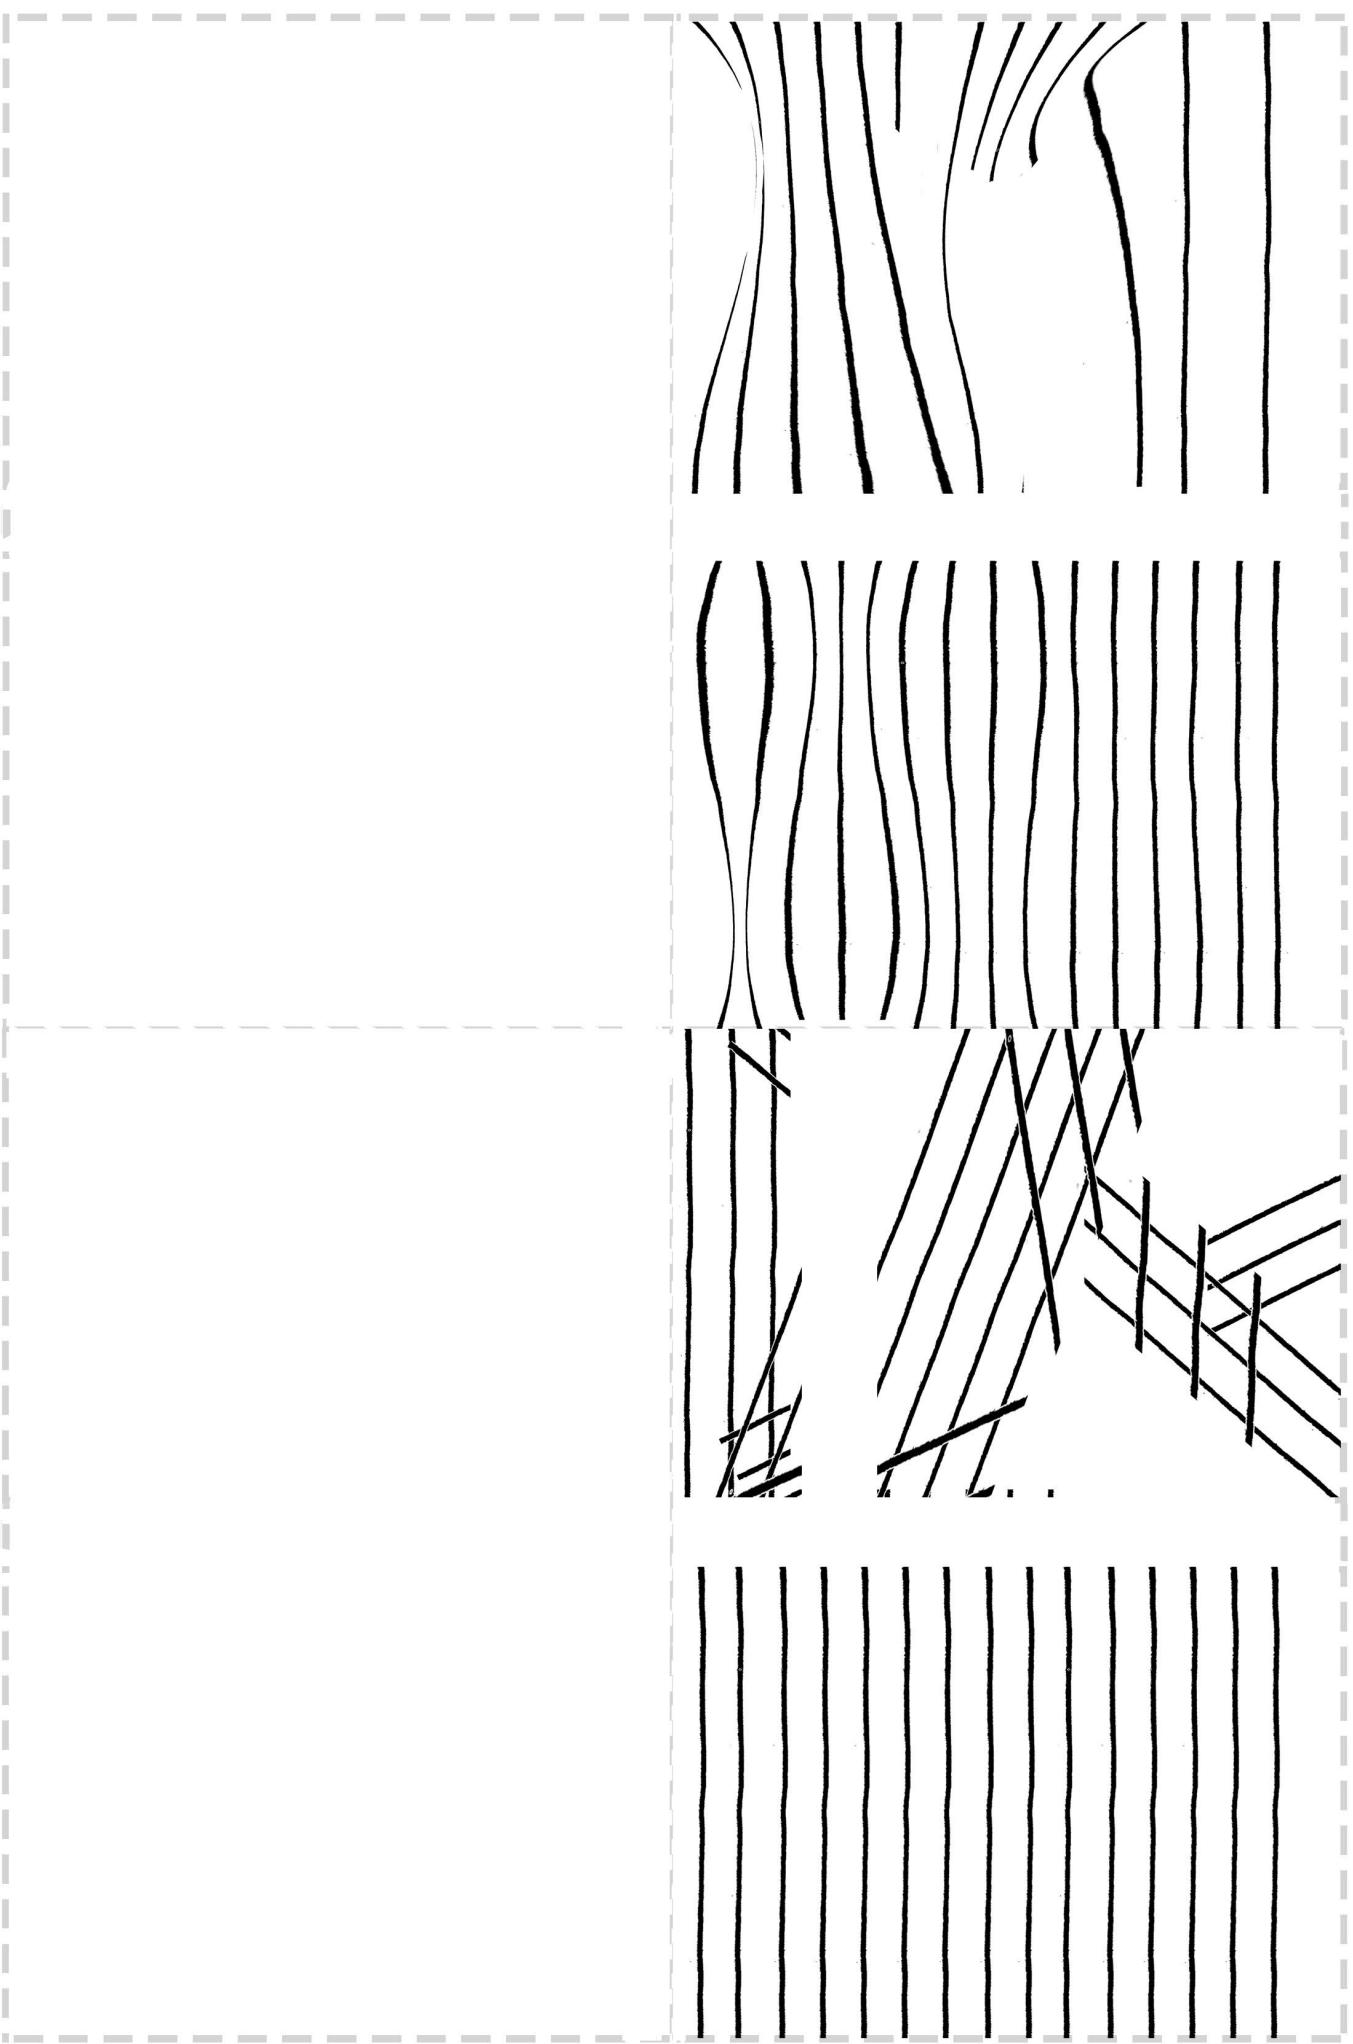

top-left, top-right,
bottom-left, bottom right,
next page, repeat.

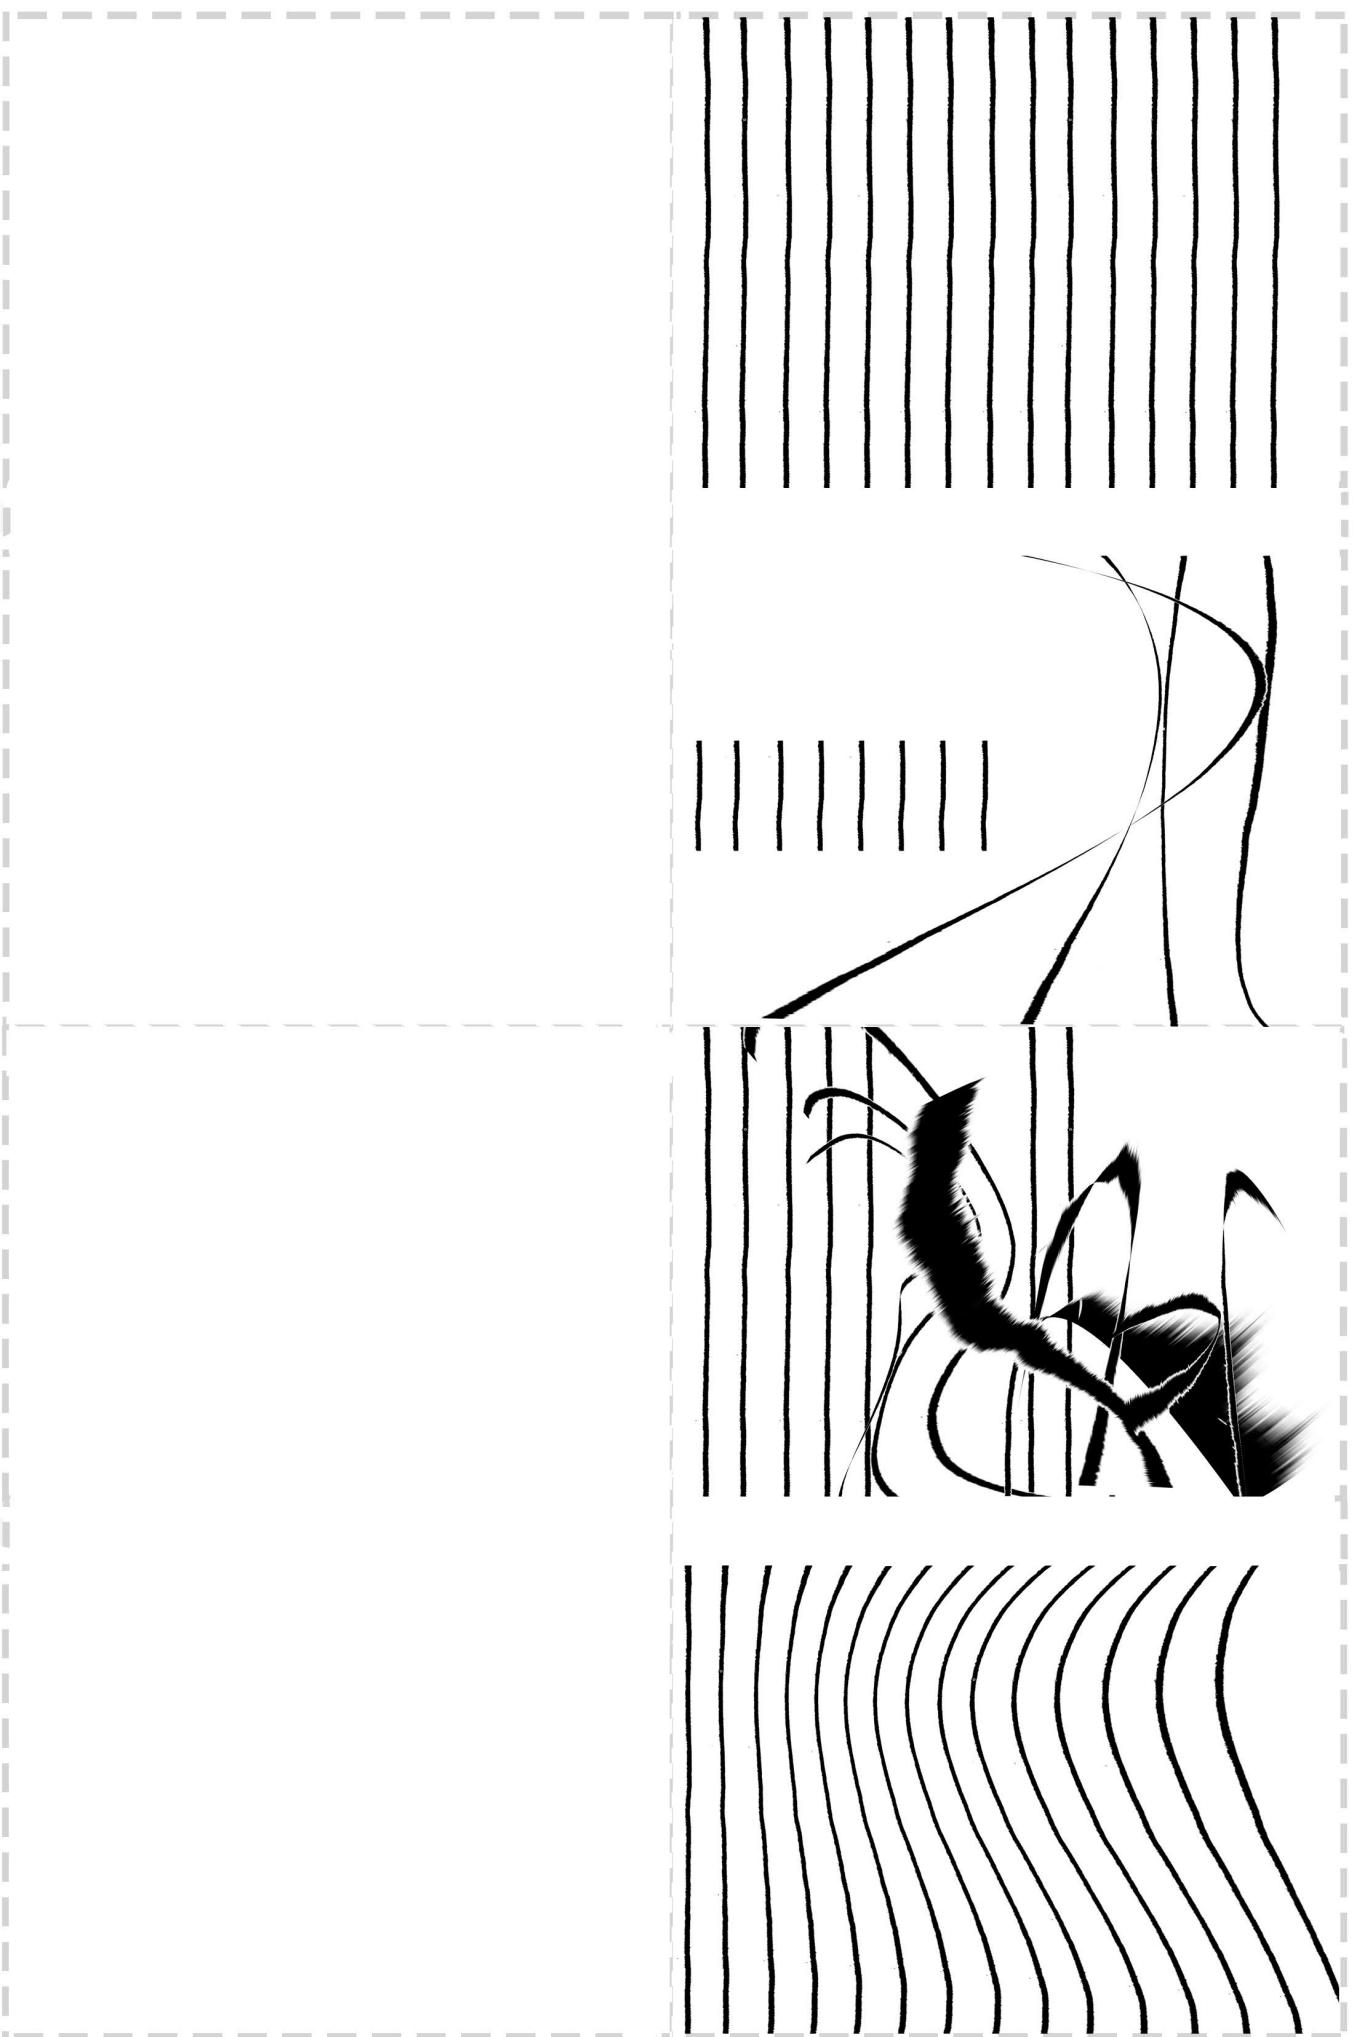

6) Fold the pile in half, and staple/bind it in the centre, or at the edge.

TIP: if you lose the order, just refer to the online version!

..Finished! Or rather, just getting started...

published pride
of 'I Times',
You department.

Welcome to the premier edition
of 'the meaning
of life'.

To conclude...

Please fill in your details on the next page
and we will begin.

THE MEANING OF LIFE

www.freely.org.uk

 (this can be reproduced and changed freely, as long as it attributes the work to www.freely.org.uk, and carries this same creative commons license)

There was an older man,
head bent over his desk,
writing...

He had lived his life as he was supposed to; paid off all his debts, and satisfied all his obligations.
Finally settled, he decided it was high time he took to understanding what life was really all about.

After much pondering and soul searching, it occurred to him that the meaning of life must be out there somewhere. That in some way it must describe all that has happened and is happening. Perhaps even what is to happen next.

Dedicated to his task, he took to writing down all the meanings of his life. Every event, and feeling, as best he could remember it; anything that meant anything. It would be in there somewhere, or it would become clear somehow, he thought.

Years passed by in his committed study of the meaning of life.